MOUNTED GROUPS STAY NEAR JAIL

No Repetition of Attack On Peace Officers Has Occurred

(Associated Press)

DALLAS, Texas, May 22.—Fortified with machine guns, tear bombs and other lethal paraphernalia in the hands of scores of determined peace officers, rangers and national guardsmen, the garrison in the Dallas county jail today had proved so formidable that no repetition of Thursday morning's mob attack for two confessed negro slayers has been attempted.

The crowd gathered around the jail which at one time last night, was estimated at 10,000 began dwindling long before midnight.

Early this morning only a few mounted groups remained in the vicinity. What few men and boys were left were chattering with the guards.

PROGRESS SLOW IN SELECTING A JURY

No Tentative Juror Is Added To Those Already Taken

(Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 22.—Progress in obtaining a jury to try William Darling Shepherd for the murder of his wife's young millionaire ward, William Nelson McClintock, was slow today.

The expressed readiness of the defense to accept virtually any juror tendered by the prosecution, caused the state's attorney's force to question veniremen closely.

At the luncheon recess no tentative juror had been added to the two locked up overnight, but Assistant State's Attorney Gorman said that he was satisfied with the last two veniremen examined and probably would tender the first panel of four jurors to the defense this afternoon.

Of the dozen veniremen examined today the majority were excused from jury duty, because of prejudice against capital punishment, hanging upon circumstantial evidence or giving maximum weight to the testimony of a confessed accomplice.

One venireman was challenged because he had a "speaking acquaintance" with an assistant state's attorney.

In addition to the "speaking acquaintance," Lewis J. Tuel had a cousin recently murdered in California and also had a decided opinion in the Shepherd case.

Otto Landwehr, a hardware man was not accepted because he had arrived at an opinion, through talking with the father of Isabel Pope, fiancée of young McCormick, who waited with a marriage license, when he died.

KIWANIS LEAVE ON TRINITY TRIP

Fourth Of Series Of Meetings Promises To Be Interesting

The Farm Relations Committee will head the Kiwanis delegation on the trip to Trinity tonight. One of the most interesting programmes of the entire series has been arranged. Special musical features will augment the general friendly interest.

Rayburn Neville will preside at the meeting. The address of welcome will be given by Reverend V. C. Herndon. The response will be given by Kiwanian C. J. Randolph. M. R. Rankin will lead the song service with J. R. Daniel at the piano.

A feature of the musical program will be the rendition of several numbers by the Kiwanis quartet composed of H. R. Davis, T. G. Crane, R. W. Cowart and M. R. Rankin. The Trinity sextette, composed of Otis Bass, O. E. Young, Leonard Carl and Misses Josephine Sheats, Ethel Littrell and Christine Sheats, is on the evening program.

The Farm Relations committee is carrying the work of the consolidation of county and North Alabama interests in this constructive programme. The response at the various meetings held thus far is a fair indication of the progressive spirit in the northern section.

Birmingham Gets The Next Reunion

(Associated Press)

DALLAS, Tex., May 22.—Determined to carry on for at least another year, the United Confederate Veterans here tabled a plan to hold departmental conventions in the future instead of the general reunion.

The veterans expressed sentiment that "the fading days of life" are just the time they want to cling together and they wish to commune in the annual reunions as long as "two are left."

Birmingham was chosen unanimously and without a single opposing vote, as next year's meeting place. The invitation from Birmingham was presented by R. H. McCallum of that city. General A. B. Freeman of Richmond, Va., for nine years commander of the Virginia division, was elected after spirited balloting, commander in chief over Gen. James A. Thomas of Dublin, Ga., retiring commander.

Friends urged General Thomas to succeed himself as he came to the leadership through the death last year of General Haldeman of Louisville, Ky., and had not been elected. The voting was accomplished by states and when Tennessee had cast her 51 votes for General Freeman, General Thomas withdrew and the election was made unanimous.

STEAMER'S CARGO OF SCOTCH TAKEN

New Rum Runner Plot Believed Found By Federal Raiders

(Associated Press)

BOSTON, May 22.—With the seizure here today of a large quantity of high quality liquor, which formed part of the cargo of the steamer Van, from Jonesport, Maine, federal authorities began investigating of an alleged new rum running route from Canada over the international boundary to New England ports.

From Maine, officials believe, the liquor is shipped to all parts of the country in merchandise packages.

Included in the seizure today, said to be the largest haul of genuine imported liquor on record at this port, were 500 cases of Scotch whiskey, packed in regular fish boxes. The seizure also included a quantity of English ale.

Captain McLean, of Everett, master of the vessel, and 13 members of the crew were arrested.

BOSTON, May 22.—Federal officers who raided an office in Haymarket Square today said they believed they had uncovered the biggest rum-running organization found in this city since the Volstead act went into operation.

Records seized, they said, revealed that three steamers, together with schooners and a fleet of 35-knot speed boats were used and that wholesale bootleggers and persons of prominence throughout the country were customers.

NORTH ALABAMA'S ASPHALT INDUSTRY SHOWS BIG GROWTH

More Marketed Now In 1925 Than In All Of Year 1924

DURABILITY NOW BEING PROVED

Many Engineers Have Studied Extensively Asphalt Deposits

Special to The Daily.

FLORENCE, Ala., May 22.—At a rapid rate the lime-rock asphalt business in Colbert County 25 miles west of Florence, is being developed. C. W. Ashcraft president of the Alabama Rock Asphalt company and a pioneer in developing this business for road and street building and improvement, says that to date this year his company has put on the market 12,000 tons compared with 8,400 tons during all of 1924. The company expects to turn out a total of 30,000 tons in 1925.

All of this material is going into streets and road improvement at various points. In natural deposits the lime-rock asphalt contains 4 to 10 per cent of pure asphalt. It is taken from the quarries in big lumps, shipped to the point of using where it is crushed until all of it will pass through a one half inch mesh screen, his being done it is mixed with 4 per cent of natural asphalt from Bermuda and applied to roads or streets. It sets itself at once and becomes ready for traffic.

Although no complete survey has been made of these deposits in North Alabama, Mr. Ashcraft believes that they are as extensive as iron ore deposits are in the Birmingham district. Geologists estimate that the deposits already discovered contain 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 tons.

The durability of it as a surface material for roads has been tested near San Antonio, Texas, according to Mr. Ashcraft. In December, 1917, a main highway leading into San Antonio was surfaced with this lime asphalt, applying it to the extent of one inch in thickness on a gravel basis. On December 31, 1924, seven years later, an official report of the engineers showed that the upkeep of it had averaged only 42.46 per mile per year, although the traffic is unusually heavy over this road.

The Texas authorities say that a firm gravel basis is sufficient and that it is not necessary to apply over one inch of the asphalt rock.

Many engineers and highway officials have studied this material, many of them coming in person. The general conclusion is that it is one of Alabama's best hopes for building hard surfaced roads that will be durable but not excessive in cost to build or keep up. It is another big natural resource which adds to the long list already being developed in Alabama.

Aviator Killed In Parachute Jump

(Associated Press)

LAKEHURST, N. J., May 22.—Lieutenant James R. Kyle, Jr., of Lynchburg, Va., was killed instantly here today when he either leaped, or fell off the wings of an airplane, when the motor went bad.

Kyle and Lieutenant James Schiltz were on the wings of the plane to make parachute jumps, but Kyle's parachute did not open until he was a few feet above the ground. The plane was only 200 feet up.

His address, the future needs and the method of meeting them. Mr. Richardson predicted the ever growing need of the general Y. M. C. A. work and declared that the public would not fail to aid in the work whenever called upon.

The meeting was brought to a close at the end of this constructive talk.

ALABAMA EXHIBIT WINS FIRST PRIZE

De Declared Best In Big New York Show By The Judges

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 22.—Alabama has been awarded the $5,000 prize of the Manufacturers Record for the best exhibit at the Southern Exposition in this city.

In making the award the committee stated that its decision in favor of Alabama "because of the comprehensive form and multifold activities of that state in agriculture, manufactures, transportation, education, power development, public health, literary and artistic work," as displayed at the exposition. The judges said they "were impressed with the fine exhibits arranged by Maryland, South Carolina Georgia and Louisiana."

The committee consisted of Robert A. Adamson, president of the Southern Society of New York; Alfred W. Haywood, New York attorney and Charles H. Herby, president of the Synthetic Manufacturing association.

William G. Sirrine, of Greenville, N. C., president of the exposition, announced that the 1926 exposition would be held in Grand Central Palace from September 27 to October 6.

In its report the judges expressed regret that all states of the south had not prepared exhibits and that some of the large public service corporations had not lent their full support to the undertaking.

Texas was accorded the place of honor at the exposition Thursday and girls from the Lone Star state served tea in the Dixie Tea room during the afternoon. As the exposition nears its close, promises and demands for a bigger and better display in 1926 are heard.

Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers Record who is credited largely with organizing the exposition told of many proposals and suggestions from north and south for next year's affair.

Many of the southern states Mr. Edmonds said, felt that they had not been given sufficient time to put their best foot forward in the matter of displays and exhibits. Ample financial support has been assured, he said, and arrangements and preparation for the exposition of 1926 will begin at once. He added that all of the states in the south will be given full opportunity and encouragement to develop the next exposition into one of great magnitude.

TWO SEAPLANES OF AMUNDSEN'S PARTY MAKE DASH TO POLE

Planes Not Equipped With Wireless And News Not Likely

EXPECTED BACK IN A FEW HOURS

If Trouble Occurs On Flight, Party To Go To Peary's Base

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 22.—The North American Newspaper Alliance said at noon today that it had received no word of the progress of the Amundsen effort, since the planes hopped off at Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, yesterday afternoon.

No communication is possible the Alliance said, since the planes have no wireless and no report will be available until the party lands at a point where there is communication with the outside world.

OSLO, Norway, May 22.—Given favorable conditions the two seaplanes of the Amundsen-Erickson expedition, which started from Kings Bay Spitzbergen at 5:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in an attempted flight to the north pole, should be back at Spitzbergen in about 24 hours from the time of the take-off.

The plans for the flight, as laid down long in advance of the start, placed Captain Roland Amundsen in plane number 25, acting as observer, with Riezer Larsen as pilot. Plane number 24, with Lincoln Ellsworth, the American engineer and explorer, as observer, had Lieutenant Dietrichson assigned to it as pilot and Oscar Omdal as mechanic.

The distance to the pole, about 680 miles, was expected to require about nine hours flying time. If a favorable landing place is not found at the pole, the journey from Kings Bay to the pole and return should occupy about 18 hours and the planes should be back this afternoon.

If trouble develops and the planes are abandoned the party will try to reach Cape Columbia, Greenland, where the Peary expedition had a base.

The planes were to maintain a height of about 700 yards on the outward journey and are expected to fly at a height of about 2,000 yards on the return trip, being then lightened by the consumption of gasoline.

Both planes were equipped with sleighs and with skis and were fully supplied with emergency provisions sufficient for one month. They also carried sufficient guns and ammunition for killing game in Greenland.

The Norwegian government has empowered Amundsen to occupy any land he may discover as Norwegian territory.

Agents Attacked In Raid On Cafe

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 22.—Attacked with chairs and bottles early today, two federal prohibition agents, attempting to make arrests in the exclusive night club rocadeo, on 51st street, were compelled to draw their guns to subdue fashionable diners.

The agents, William J. McKay and Michael Sassi, in evening clothes, paid $20 for a pitcher of champagne.

They grabbed the waiter, the manager is said to have interfered. In an instant the place was in an uproar. Women screamed while men in dress suits tore black jacks from the agents' hands.

They succeeded in arresting the head waiter and the manager only after threatening to shoot.

NEW POLICE COLLEGE TO TRAIN RECRUITS FROM OTHER CITIES

NEW YORK—A piece of detective work appropriately underlies the newly established Police Academy which Commissioner Enright has dedicated as the future West Point of the nation's bluecoats.

Last year police headquarters was agog over the mysterious and prolonged absence abroad of Inspector John J. Noonan, now the academy's first commandant. He had slipped away with no one knowing it, and the question was: Who was he after?

The question was never answered, for it developed that the inspector's secret mission was merely to do some quiet and correspondingly freer sleuthing the police the world over, in order to make the present Police Academy the sum of the latest international ideas in police training.

Inspector Noonan, it has been explained was sent overseas by Commissioner Enright with credentials to Scotland yard and the police chiefs of Paris, Vienna, Berlin, Rome and other capitals. He was ordered to keep lips sealed and eyes and ears open, and saturate himself with the best in training facilities and methods to the end that the "West Point" dream might be realized.

Commissioner Enright announces that the academy will be open not only to New York police and police recruits but also to those from other cities. A limited number will be ac-

ADVICE TO GIRLS

By ANNIE LAURIE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a man of twenty-two and have been going with a girl of twenty. I am deeply in love with her, but she doesn't seem to care much for me, because she goes out with other young men.

Please tell me how I can win her love? LONELY ONE.

LONELY ONE: There is no reason why you should think this young lady does not love you merely because she accepts other invitations. She has this privilege inasmuch as she is not engaged to marry you. But if you want to foster your friendship with her (for you know love cannot be forced), talk to her of the things in which she is interested, be cheerful and gay—and, above all, your own natural self.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a married woman, twenty-six years old, and the mother of a little girl. My husband says he loves me, but he goes to shows and other places of amusement and never invites me. What is your advice? BABY.

BABY: Why don't you have a heart-to-heart talk with your husband and explain to him how much you would enjoy going to the theatre or to other places of amusement with him? If you make him realize that you must have some relief from the routine of household duties, and that you will be much happier if you do, I am sure he will understand.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am nineteen years of age and am deeply in love with a young man two years my senior. He has told me that he loved me and he asked me to marry him in about five months. Lately he stopped coming to see me without any reason. I have written him about five letters and he hasn't answered one of them. Please advise me what to do.

BROKEN-HEARTED BETTY.

BROKEN-HEARTED BETTY: If this young man has been rude enough to let your letters remain unanswered, he is not worthy of your friendship, my dear. Try to forget him and devote your time to people who appreciate you and treat you courteously.

Annie Laurie will welcome letters of inquiry on subjects of feminine interest from young women readers of this paper and will reply to them in these columns. Letters to Miss Laurie should be addressed to her in care of this office.

TASTE IN COLORS CALLED CRITERION OF CIVILIZATION

DENVER—Pro. Thomas Russell Garth of the department of education in the University of Denver, declares that preferences in colors denote types of civilization and orders of intelligence.

He pointed to a recent test made by the University of Texas, which found that white children cared most for blue and envied a particular distaste for yellow.

"The more white people are educated," said Prof. Garth, "the less they esteem red. In fact, they suppress all colors except blue as they become more educated."

A previous examination of 1,000 Indians showed that red was their favorite color. They disliked yellow, avoiding its use whenever possible. One thousand Chinese children, given the same test, displayed the white children's preference for blue.

Prof. Garth is planning an expedition to a number of Indian reservations to continue his study of color preferences.

Deputy sheriffs from this city, who rushed to Ladd last night, reported today that they reached the scene before any shooting occurred, although white and negro men in the mob are said to have been armed.

Deputies said the trouble started when a negro resented being refused admittance to a county fair in progress at Ladd.

New Sensations Are Now Enjoyed By Many Girls

Women Who Formerly Lacked Energy On Account Of Physical Imperfections Now Rejoicing.

Only those who realize now through the use of St. Joseph's G. F. P. the pleasures and happiness with freedom from pain and melancholy, which they missed in earlier life, can fully appreciate the wonderful transformations which are taking place among our girlhood and womanhood since this wonderful medicine has been introduced in this country.

It is actually making fully developed, strong, beautiful and attractive women out of girls who long ago gave up the thought of such pleasures and happiness, on account of imperfections in their delicate organs which rendered them weak, sorrowful, despondent in pain, with headaches and a languid, depressing feeling during periods of organic functioning.

Girls who never had the glow of healthy, robust youth; girls who never could see the fun and the thrills which would cause riotous mirth and laughter among their chums, are now enjoying these sensations which they have long despaired of indulging and are proving a revelation to their friends by their cheery, happy, vivacious appearance and robust vitality.

On account of these wonderful, almost miraculous changes, St. Joseph's G. F. P. is enjoying unprecedented popularity, and nearly every dealer everywhere is recommending it highly.

12 Years Ago From The Daily of TODAY May 22, 1913

Building operations have been held up for the past two weeks on account of rains in this section.

Miss Dorothy Callahan returns from Collins Institute at Bristol, Tenn., this week.

Miss Fannie Brown Collier has returned from Florence where she attended State Normal this year.

Mrs. W. T. Ewing is reported very ill at her home on Fourth Avenue, South.

Deputy Sheriffs Harvey Wright and Lile McCulloch have been appointed special officers for the reunion trains to Chattanooga.

Reverend H. B. Woodard has returned after attending the Baptist convention at St. Louis.

A DAILY PRAYER—We pray Thee for the power to be as salt to every corrupting influence brightness in darkness and health to the sick.

Folks in Florida will be wishing they were back North if the weather man continues to predict heat.

Some may advocate the abolishment of the annual custom of Confederate soldiers to gather and go back sixty years to the days when they were soldiers in arms together. We don't. Those old fellows get more enjoyment out of those few days than they could have at any other sort of function lasting the year round.

A man is not a total loss until he quits. He may have a hard time getting started, be looked upon as of secondary importance in his community for a great many years, but if he keeps up his fight there is a chance that he will not be looked upon as a laggard, a loss to his community and to himself.

For the protection of the citizens of this district we believe that the passage of a safeguard against the output of impure milk should be adopted. Every other city in North Alabama has adopted such a measure. Huntsville, Decatur, Florence, Sheffield and Tusculumbia. We believe that the ordinance will be adopted in this city after a study of the situation and the dangers of an impure milk supply.

IS TENNESSEE TRYING TO MAKE PUBLICITY STUNT OF EVOLUTION TRIAL

The other day, in one of the smaller towns of Tennessee, a professor was arrested on the allegation that he taught evolution, in defiance of the new anti-evolution law of the state. Newspapers printed the story and widespread interest was aroused. Finally William Jennings Bryan, Dudley Field Malone and Charles Darrow, a trio of well known men, were mentioned in connection with the trial of the educator.

Then picture agencies took up the story and carried pictures of the professor in various papers, together with articles about the case. Fundamentalists and modernists everywhere began talking of the case. The obscure professor suddenly found himself famous.

Sensing the publicity value of such a story, to the community in which the trial was held, Knoxville and Chattanooga inaugurated efforts to take the hearing away from Dayton. Chattanooga, being more alert, threatens to checkmate the Dayton trial by having one of her own a few days before.

It looks like the Tennessee cities are trying to make a three ring circus out of what should be a serious court proceeding. It will not work, for long. The famous men who have become interested in the case, and by their interest, made the proceedings more or less a national event, are approaching the matter with more seriousness than Tennessee apparently supposes. If they are ever convinced that Tennessee merely is seeking publicity, and little else, and is using their names for the furtherance of an advertising proposition, they will exert their righteous indignation and refuse to become a part of the scheme.

PATTERSON CORRECTS AN ERRONEOUS IMPRESSION

Following the reproduction of an editorial from the Selma Times-Journal in the editorial columns of The Daily in which The Daily agreed with that publication that the appointment of commissioners from every section of the state, advocated by Mr. Patterson, was a detriment rather than an aid in the solution of the highway question, we wish to correct the statement that was issued.

Through the columns of the Birmingham Age-Herald of Sunday Mr. Patterson announced a constructive platform likely to be adopted if he decided to enter the race for the governorship. He presented the basic principles of his platform under five heads. The fifth subject pertained to the highway question entirely and included: "Reorganization of the state highway commission, providing for representation thereon from every section of the state, and for the employment of an experienced, capable executive as head of the department; with the highway commissioners serving similarly as directors of banks and other business corporations, receiving only nominal salaries and with the chairman in full charge of construction work and maintenance."

In the body of the article the Age-Herald cleared the question slightly when they spoke of Mr. Patterson's plan for having five commissioners from five sections of the state. This matter however, went past the eyes of the Journal and The Daily editors.

Talking over the situation in the state Mr. Patterson produced the complete manuscript of the talk that he delivered in Tuscaloosa and the question of representation is now clear and is presented to the public in the following form:

Public Highways

"The state is emphatically committed to the policy of constructing a state system of highways and I believe this important work should be carried forward as rapidly as possible. Having put our hands to the plow we cannot afford to turn back. That there is much dissatisfaction and complaint over the state with the present administration and programme of this department is recognized and openly asserted by the chairman of the State Highway Commission. I believe that there should be a change in the organization of the state highway commission. It is now composed of three members and there is no inhibition in the law against the appointment of all three of them from the same section of the state, or even from the same community. The building of highways is not exclusively an engineering matter. The first consideration is to make them serve the commercial needs of the state, and the men who compose this commission should be intimately familiar with the conditions in every section of the state. This can be more nearly accomplished, so far as the law is concerned, by dividing the state into highway districts and appointing one commission for each district. I think that the membership of the commission should consist of five members with a chairman as the executive officer. He should give his entire time to the work of the commission and of course receive such compensation as would secure a man of the highest business and executive capacity. The governor should absolutely disregard political preference in the selection of the commission and if found necessary or advisable to go outside the state to secure the proper man for chairman or chief executive officer, the governor should not hesitate to do so. The favorable record now being made by the State's Docks Commission is an illustration of what can be accomplished in construction of public improvements by placing in active charge as directing head of such construction, a man of extensive experience and ability and who has no entangling political or sectional alignments.

In this connection, I think serious consideration should be given to a fundamental change in the method of constructing our highways. There is an opportunity for the profitable employment of state convicts in the manufacture and mining of materials used in highway construction. It seems to me that this offers an opportunity also for taking state convicts out of the mines and using their labor to material advantage elsewhere."

So the matter of the appointment of citizens from every section of the state is not the advocacy of Mr. Patterson in the least. He favors the appointment of a man from each district of the state, the state to be cut into five and not more than seven highway districts. We can see no fault with such a plan and we believe that every section of the state will benefit through the accomplishment of such an organization.

Mr. Patterson has outlined one of the most progressive platforms that could possibly be advocated. The carrying out of such a policy will mean that the state will take its place among the foremost of the nation, where Alabama rightfully belongs.

We regret that the impression has been given, on the highway section of Mr. Patterson's talk, that the appointment of possibly thirty-five men was advocated. Mr. Patterson had no such thought in mind as his speech clearly shows. We believe that the Selma Times-Journal will see the mistake that has been made and that the question of doubt will be removed.

Newspapers generally will look carefully upon the stand of each candidate for the governorship on the highway question. It is a question that is paramount in issue to every section of the state. People of Alabama have awakened from the slumber of the past and are looking forward in lines educational, road building, constructive. The candidates are going to be watched by the people on the question of road building possibly more than upon any other issue. We believe that Mr. Patterson is on the right track in the matter of constructing roads. He knows the value of permanent roads, knows the importance of representation of every section of the state.

AN EDISON TABLET

Last Saturday at Menlo Park, the New Jersey home of Thomas A. Edison's activities, there was unveiled a bronze tablet in honor of the outstanding inventive genius of modern times. It was a gift of the "Edison Pioneers" and the Governor of New Jersey made a speech in acceptance of the tablet.

It was at Menlo Park that Mr. Edison really began his marvelous career in 1876. Since then he has labored there on his works of invention and in developing the inventions of others. It was there and then that he "began his work," as the Governor expressed it, "of service for the world to illumine the path of progress and lighten labor for mankind." He set in motion an era which is the new age of mechanical progress.

During the more than fifty years since he definitely settled down to his life task the world has moved with rapid strides. The Atlantic cable had been laid, the telegraph had become an accomplished fact, steam cars and steamboats were in operation and the cotton gin and sewing machine were in use. But they had only set in motion the spirit of development. Since then have come the Bells and the Grammys, the Maxims, the Marconis, the Langleys and Wrights, the Fords. Automobiles, submarines, dirigibles, airplanes, telephones with their many added devices, transmission of voice and even photos by wireless, the graphophone, the radio, most marvelous of all, these and many others have followed not exactly in the wake of Edison, but inspired largely by his wonderfully successful productions. He gave confidence to men and gave assurance to genius. The scope of inventive possibilities was by him enlarged and the long-chained unknown was released.

Mr. Edison is a very modest man as he is a hard worker. He has no especial pride of genius, but takes the output of the genius of others and converts it into something tangible and of value. He is not a very rich man, but he has enriched the world to a degree that is fairly amazing. An old man, he continues to labor for humanity and his greatest pleasure is in the work he does, in the feats of his accomplishment. It is fortunate that tablets are being dedicated to him while living and that he may see and feel and enjoy the praise of his fellow men.—Nashville Banner.

COLORFUL PAGEANT TO MARK CENTENARY OF SANTA FE TRAIL

COUNCIL GROVE—One hundred things have swelled the sturdy trunk of the venerable Council Oak, patriarch of the Council Grove, since that August day of 1825 when white and red chiefs gathered in its shade to barter for a trade route to Spanish New Mexico. In a few short months, hundreds of pilgrims will be speeding over the twentieth century highways of the middle west to pay their respects to the old and the new Council Grove, birthplace of the Santa Fe trail.

This is Council Grove's centennial year. Full of pride in its dramatic life story, the little town is preparing to re-enact in pageantry the scenes of a century ago. Its own historian, Mrs. Lalla Maloy Brigham, heads the civic committee which is planning the centenary program and, with the descendants of those Indians who signed the treaty of 1825 with the United States commissioners, the whole community will unite next August to celebrate its own birthday and that of the Santa Fe trail.

President John Quincy Adams' order, authorized by an act of congress early in 1825 sent a handful of federal commissioners out to the western border of the states to secure a right of way to the unknown lands of the southwest. They left Missouri and pushed into virtually trackless wastes. What was then the last outpost of western civilization is today the mid-point of the United States.

Under the great oak, sole memento today of that pow-wow, the government officers held council with the sachems of the Great and Little Osages, and then took back to President Adams the word that they had, on August 10, 1825 gained for the nation the right to pass over the Indian domain, over what became the Santa Fe trail, southwest across Kansas from Independence, Mo., to the Spanish posts in New Mexico.

DEAD PETS PRESERVED FOR SORROWING OWNERS

LOS ANGELES—Strange stories surround the pets which men and women bring into taxidermy studios here. Often the sorrowing owners want their dead cat, dog or bird companions stuffed and mounted.

Recently a man came in with a parrot. He explained the manner in which he wanted it preserved "I am having a little casket made," he added, "and it is to be placed there. We were pals for 19 years." He told how he and the bird had travelled over Europe together.

Weepingly a woman brought in a canary to be mounted and put in a glass case. "The little thing has slept with me, eaten with me and been my greatest comfort for years," she told the proprietor.

600 Punctures But Still Full Of Air

A new puncture proof inner tube has been introduced in Chicago which was punctured 600 times without the loss of any air. Motorists can increase their tire mileage over twelve thousand miles by using this tube without removing it from the wheel. It costs no more than the ordinary tube. If you are interested you can write Mr. B. B. Gates, a 1208 Glenlake Ave., Chicago, for full information as he wants these tubes introduced everywhere. Wonderful opportunity for agents. Simply send name, a postcard will do. adv. 20-3t.

Power Team Wins Over Decatur 12-4; Barons Lost 5th Straight; Johnson Wins

Alabama Power company took a decision from Decatur yesterday afternoon in easy fashion 12-4. A crippled Power combination fought their way to the front with the hit and run game while Bloodworth and Pepper held the Decatur team at bay.

Decatur jumped in the lead in the first inning with a single tally on an error that allowed Braswell to travel three fourths of the way and a single over second. The Power company came back in the second and counted six runs on a flock of hits coupled with a pair of errors. The bludgeoning continued in the third when the Power company scored another pair. Decatur bunched hits and counted twice making the score 8-3. Decatur came through again in the fourth with another counter. The Power company removed all doubt of the spectators regarding a win or loss when they continued their march to the front with three runs in the last half of the fourth. Another run in the fifth ended the scoring for both clubs.

The Decaturites tried hard in the fifth, sixth and seventh but failed to grab opportunities in the scoring line. Pepper relieved Bloodworth in the seventh and held the Decatur team scoreless.

The Thursday victory of the Power company places that team in an undisputed leadership of the city league.

The feature of Thursday's game was the catching of Conley. Conley snuffed out every attempt at stealing tactics, throwing out five men at second. Conley was also strong with the stick and accounted for several of his teams tallies.

Barons featured the past week with a string of victories. They are featuring this week with a string of defeats. The Barons have dropped from a tie for first place early in the week to a tie for seventh place with two days left to improve their standing.

Walter Johnson hurled his way to his sixth straight victory yesterday against the Detroit Tigers. Ty Cobb was the only man to get more than one blow. Johnson let the Tigers down with seven safeties. Walter is some little hitter himself, getting three hits out of four trips for the afternoons work. Fans are watching the veteran's performance thus far with a great deal of interest and satisfaction.
